to Hide the Pact that Invitation to Hide the Fact that Invitations to the state Have Been Scattered Hight and Left Speaker Reed's Refusal to He the Tall of the Ticket Brag and Bluster. WASHINGTON, May 26, Senator Quay returned to Washington to-day, but he still declines to produce the typewritten account of his visit to the wabbling candidate which, it has been reported, he would produce. Mr. Quay said only one thing to-day about his Canton visit and that was in effect a denial of the effervescent John E. Milholland's statement that the Senator had not been in vited by Major McKinley to Canton. The Sepator said to-day:

I guess Mr. Milholland must have been Either he was misquoted or Senator Quay is about the only Republican politician of influence in Washington who has failed to re-ceive an invitation from McKinley. Mr. Milholland represents the wabbling candidate as being in a good-natured and forgiving mood, willing to receive all Republicans who may desire to call on him, but opposed to paving the way for any of them by Issuing Invitations. This is remarkable, in view of the fact that Senators Elkins, Lodge, Cullom, and half a dozen others have admitted open-ly that they have been invited to Canton. and some of them go so far as to say that they will accept the invitations. Others will

Among the anti-McKinley Senators who have received invitations and will accept them, is Senator Cullom of Illinois, who only a few weeks ago ran into a McKipley blizzard in his own State with such disastrons results to his political ambitions. Mr. Cullom can't get away from Washington just now to a press of legislative matters in which his constituents are deeply interested. but he will step off at Canton on his way home after the adjournment of Congress, Sen-ator Elkirs has had a letter of invitation in his pocket for a month or more, but is in no haste to accept it, and Senator Lodge will find it inconvenient to go to Canton at any

This Republican says that Major McKinley has all his life been a firm believer in sticking to the party organization, and that no matter how bitterly he may be fought by a political leader, he will do everything in his power to come to terms with him in order that he may get the benefit of the support of the organization which that leader represents.

An illustration of Candidate McKinley's habit of bowing to the will of the organization was afforsted when Gen. Bushneil was nominated for the Governorehip in Ohio. He was the candidate of the Forsker men, and it was generally understood that his nomination would be a direct siap in the face for McKinley and his friends. Forsker understood this well, and yet he gave the order to nominate Hushnell, and it was done. McKinley had not a word to say in response to the insult, but meekly surrendered, and advised all his friends to support the nominee. By his conciliatory course in this instance and others like it he has been able to keep the Forsker wing of the party from openly opposing his nomination, and no doubt will receive the full vote of the Ohio delegation at St. Louis, although there are many anti-McKinley men in it.

McKinley has been embarrassed somewhat lately by his policy of conc'llating the opposition within the Republican organization, owing to the peculiar condition of affairs in Illinois, where he made such a vigorous and partily successful fight. The original McKinley editor in Chleago is opposing the ambition of the candidate for the Governorship. Tanner, although he is the choice of the party. So far Candidate McKinley men here are confident that as soon as he is sure of his own nomination he will come out and endorse Tanner in order to get the endorsement of the Republican organization explains wby the candidate has invited all of his political opponen fact that It is a part of the candidate's poltry to conciliate his enemies, and that no cettior in Chicago is opposing the ambition of the candidate for the Governorshy, Tanner, although he is the choice of the party. So far chord the content of the content of the party. So far claring himself reparting Tanner's candidate, but the McKinley men here are condident that as soon as he is sure of his own nomination has been been content that as soon as he is sure of his own nomination has been content of the conte went to decime, he will have an opportunity to do so, and the National Convention will put Gen. Tracy or somebody else upon the ticket."

Schator Lodge says that any attempt to nominate Mr. Reed for Vice-President will be met with a positive and authorized declaration that he will decline, even if the nomination is unanimous, and if the National Convention takes the responsibility of putting him on the Ekket after such an announcement, Mr. Heed will feel absolved from all delicacy in making a formal declination.

Secretary Carlisle still poses in Washington as the Administration candidate for the Democratic nomination, as President Cleve. land and his friends do not think the time has arryted for them to show the'r hands. Mr. Carlisle has about the same financial record that Candidate McKinley has. Each voted in Congress a dozen times, more or less, for free comage propositions, and each is now posing as a sound money candidate, although McKinley is entitled to the honor only by the inference of his triends, while Candidate Carlisle has had the temerity to burn all his free-coinage speeches behind him, and stand forth as the representative of a gold standard.

In the Senate to-day a very amusing colony took place which shows the opinion that Senators on both sides of the chamber have of the value of the financial declarations of Candidate Carlisic, which coinion will apply, of course, with equal force to the case of Candidate McKinley Senator Printhand of North Carolina had just given the Senate his views of the lariff question when Senator Lindsay of Kentucky arose to make a speech on the same subject with a little financial windom thrown in. Senator Lindsay had said Mr. President, when the irrepressible leader of the same subject with a little financial windom thrown in. Senator Lindsay had said mr. President, when the irrepressible leader of the silver fanatics, Senator Friedward of North Carolina had just given the Senate his visdom thrown in. Senator Lindsay had said at the public expense the silver speech drew his objection.

Then Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island demanded to know he what argument it was proposed to print as a Senate document a speech that had been published in the Congressional Terrord, Senator Stewert said that presson that had been published in the tonpressonal Brown, sensor Stewart said that it, was of great sains to the public, and to his silver constituents in particular. Sanator Aldrich thereupon objected to the nutrication and was susteined by Senator Platt, who expressed the opinion that as the recent Chicago speech of Secretary Carlisis had been foliated upon the Senato it was time to call a halt in this method of publishing political aspeeches at Government expense. Senator Cockrell, the most radical free silver man on the Democratic site, then helied Senator Stewart out by telling him that he knew where there were a good many of those Carisist speeches of 1878, and that he would give him all he wanted for his constituents; so the Nevada Senator sat down and the ob-

This episode led a Republican Senator to remark that if McKinley should be nominated rome of his silver votes in Congress would probably be referred to by the free silver men as good Republican endorsement of their cause.

Won't Trust Himself to Make a Decoration Day Speech this Year,

CANTON, O., May 26. - To all appearances this has been a quiet day in the McKinley campaign. But if the contents of the great bundle of letters which the postman carried up to the house, and of the other big bundle which messengers carried back to the Post Office were known, probably an interesting tale could be spun. These bundles are growing in volume ever day, and it is evident that much of the closing-up work of the campaign s being intrusted to Uncle Sam's Post Office Department. BROOKLYN REPUBLICANS.

Much Activity at the Election District As. sociation Enrollments,

Meetings were held last night in each of the 628 Republican election district associations in Brooklyn for the enrollment of new members. Owing to the bitter faction fight in the organization and the near approach in the organization and the near approach of the primaries, at which the lattle royal between the Wurster-Willis and the Worth Buttling forces is to take place, there was much interest manifested and the introduction of considerabe fresh blood. It was said that in many districts the rew members will have sufficient strength to change their present factional complexion. Sheriff Buttling was confident that his said would be able to retain control of the county would be able to retain control of the county Committee and elect two-thirds of the dele-gates to the State Gonvention. Mr. Willis was just as positive that the "Administra-tion" wing would regain its ascendancy.

He also made this political prediction:

With McKinley as the national candidate the gubernaturial nomination will be forced into the hands of men of the kind I have mentioned. In that event keep your eye on Wurster and Tracy.

OHIO SAYS KICK OUT PLATT.

MARK HANNA'S PLAN OF CAM-PAIGN IN THIS STATE.

Provisional (Why Not Provincial?) Com-mittees to Undertake Local Republican Affairs and Report to the Ohio Agency for Syndicating the United States. The Hon, Marcus A. Hanna, Mr. McKinley's chief manager, has not had direct communication with ex-Senator Platt since he sent that letter a month ago declaring that he never called Quay and Platt "baby politicians." The last time Mr. Hanna and Mr. Platt met was last December, when Mr. Hanna came to New York to solicit Mr. Platt's aid for the McKinley boom. Mr. Platt, however, received last night a comnunication which he said he believed came addrectly from Mr. Hanna. It was in shape of an editorial in the Cleveland Leader, a newspaper in whose counsels Mr. Hanna is said to be very powerful. It is as follows:

RICK RIM OUT. It has been seriously proposed by the McKinley Republicans of New York to take the management of the campaign in that State out of the hands of Boss Platt's committee after Major McKinley is nominated for the Presidency,
Why shouldn't that be done? It has been freely stated that 75 per cent. of the Republicans of New York are enthusiastically for Major McKinley—that they desire his nomination now. When he has been nominated will that 75 per cent of the Republicans be willing to trust the management of the campnign to a committee controlled by Platt, who had assetted Mr. McKinley in a most outrageous and vindictive manner? We think not. Purthermore, they ought not to submit to anything of the kind. If Plats falls in his purpose to dictate the nomination of the St. Louis Convention, he will not, unless he is placated with a promise of patronag McKinley.

Therefore, the McKinley Republicans of the Empire

State ought to take the management of the campaign into their own hands, the majority ought to rule, and it must rule when there is danger of treachery in submitting to the rule of the minority.

The Platt Republicans at the Fifth Avenue Hotel say that it is apparent that if Mr. McKinley is nominated at St. Louis, Mr. Hanna is determined to set up provisional county and State committees in New York to run the campaign. Mr. Platt's friends said that according to the Ohio bosses Mr. McKinley was evidently beyond the pale of criticism, and that any Republican who dared uplift his voice unless in the most melifituous adulation of Mr. McKinley is to be read out of the party. The Platt Republicans said that they would welcome Mr. Hanna's proposed provisional committees. There is a kind of welcome historical in Ohio. Tom Corwin invented it.

There was one wrathful Republican at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last night. He was Capt. Joseph Dickey of Newburgh, the life-long friend of Col. Thomas W. Bradley of Walden, the national delegate, who is the colleague of the Hon. Benjamin H. Odoll, Jr., and who has come out and declared that he will vote for Mc-Kinley on the first ballot. Col. Dickey came down from Newburgh to make arrangements for bed and board at the St. Louis Convention. Everything was arranged satisfactorily, but during the negotiatoins Capt. Dickey was informed that immediately after Col. Bradley came out for McKinley the Republican officials here having charge of the hotel arrangements at St. Louis received requests from three other national delegates in the Statesaying:

"Put us in any room except with Readley."

The letters instituated that Bradley was a traitor to Gov. Morton, and these three delegates did not wish to occupy the same room with him. When Capt. Dickey heard this he swung his arms and declared:

"The letters instituated that Bradley was a traitor to Gov. Morton, and these three delegates did not wish to occupy the same room with him. When Capt. Dickey heard this he swung his arms and declared:

"The letters instituated that Bradley's face what they have said in their letters. The men are sneaks who wrote those letters have been as brave all their lives and as loyal a Republican as Col. Bradley is even in his sleep. Col. Hradley was a Lleutenant in the leaving the pack mules ley is nominated at St. Louis, Mr. Hanna is determined to set up provisional county and State his sleep. Col. Bradley was a Lieutenant in the 124th New York Volunteers. At the battle of Chancellorsville his brigade had to fall back, leaving the pack mules dead with the ammunition strapped to their backs 130 yards to the front. Bradley volunteered to get that ammunition, and amid a storm of shot and shell he marched out alone over those 150 yards and cut the straps that beaud the ammunition to the mules' backs and lugged the ammunition to the mules' backs and lugged the ammunition back to the brigade. He was promoted to be a Major for that act. He doesn't want to sleep in the same room with the sneaks who sent those letters."

It was learned last night that the apparent intention of Mr. Hanna to make war on the Platt Republicans has solidified them and has also brought letters of encouragement from Republican leaders in all of the States east of the Alleghanies, who believe that if Hanna is to make warfare on Platt because of his strictures on Mr. McKinley he will also enter into a campaign against them, provided Mr. McKinley is nominated.

PROBLETIONISTS MEET TO-DAY National Ticket to Be Named at Pittsburgh Convention Issues.

PITTSBURGH, May 26.- The Prohibition National Convention will meet to-morrow. Mr. Bentley of Nebraska, the "broad-gauge" candidate for President, declared to-day that, without a free-silver plank in the platform and an en dorsement of weman suffrage, he would not run. Mr. Levering of Marriand man, asserted in equally positive terms that he would not consent to be the champion of the party unless the issue were confined to the one question of prohibition. Ex-Gov. St. John of question of prohibition. Ex-Gov. St. John of Kansas asserted that without a positive declar-ation for free silver the party would not receive in any Western State one-sixth of the support it could otherwise claim. Side issues are being raised by the "reform party," which held a meeting this afternoon, and expects to exercise considerable influence on the Convention. Prof. Seelye of Wooster, O., was elected permanent Chalrman of the Gougar addressed the delegates of the new party. She scored both the old parties, picturing the apostle of protection McKinley; as plating the first sheet of tin at Piqua, and characterizing him as the demagogue leader who planned the whole tin mill scheme for the deception of voters, the great Tenescal Mine, which the tariff was to benefit, having subscenently been sold for S5 and a mule. The motto of the Prohibition party, she said, was "No liquor, no licker, no dicker," The party, she said, was pronounced dead and buried every four years, but its powers of resurrection were the wonder and admiration of partisans.

Mrs. Gougar declared that a vast number of Prohibitionists had come to the conclusion that it was as necessary for people to get something to eat as to be prevented from drinking, and that plenty of money was as essential as closed saloons. When delegates were kent away from a Prohibition Conventioniby goldbug, soundmoney Cleveland-Mammon-Carlisle-Sherman-McKinley rings, it was time to make declarations broad enough to include woman suffrage, land, money, and prohibition.

A New Reform Party Coming.

Good Government Club A held a meeting last night at their rooms, 722 Lexington avenue, and were addressed by State Senator Pavey and Jacob A. Rils on the general reform work accomplished by the clubs. Senator Pavey told of his experiences at Albany during the recent assion. He said that a new reform party was to be formed immediately after the national election in this city.

Twice since January it was proposed to form a new liepublican party here. The plans were put aside, as all the factions could not be brought into line until the national election was over. The new party is to confue itself, he said, to municipal and State affairs and is to be non-partisan. It will be made up mostly from men diesatisfied with the Republican party in this city.

A story preceded the Illinois National Committeeman to the effect that he had charge of the distribution of Convention tickets to the delegates, and that they would be given to none but single-standard men. To this Mr. Cable gave emphatic denial. Sound-money Men Didn't Take Part in the CHICAGO, May 26.- The Cook County Demothe State Convention, was called to order in West Twelfth street Turner Hall shortly before noon to-day. The gathering was large and confined almost exclusively to the supporters of free silver, the "honest-money" Democrats refusing to vote for delegates to the Convention at yesterday's primaries.

The platform, which was adopted almost unanimously, there being less than a dozen votes in the negative, declares in favor of the immediate repeal of all that "Republican, immediate repeal of all that "Republican, impatriotic, and revolutionary legislation of 1873" demonetizing silver, and demands the immediate restoration of the bimetalile system and the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver without waiting for any other ration. On this platform the 302 delegates to the State Convention at Peoria were then elected, and a resolution adopted instructing them to select A. S. Trude as their Chairman. Among select A. S. Tammuny Men and Ornee Men to Go Te-gether as Delegates to Chicago and to Saratoga Grace, Scott, and Power May Be Among the Chicago Delegation. It will be a united Democracy that will send delegates to the Chicago Convention and to the Saratoga Convention from this city. That has been decided on and it need not surprise any one should there appear in the list of delegates selected the names of Wil llam R. Grace, Maurice J. Power, Francis M. Scott, and others who have been factional opponents of the regular Democratic organizations of New York county for many years. There are many reasons for this obliteration of factional lines, but chief among them is the belief that the triumph of the Democratic party is the first consideration which should now control every Democrat, The disquet felt over the result of the "reform movement" of 1894 has also been a contributing Neither Tammany leaders nor State De mocracy leaders would say yesterday who had brought about the artual reace or who made the first overtures. Both sides admitted, though, that there seemed to be a general willingness to come together and train under one banner.

The Tammany Hall district leaders were not all aware of the arrangement until recently, when they received notice from leader John C. Sheehan announcing it and demanding of them that they receive their old enemies into full fellowship, be prepared to treat them as prothers, and to see to it that some former Grace Democracy men are sent as delegates from their Assembly district to the Democratic State Convention at Saratoga on June 24. They had had an inkling that something of the sort might happen, as the State Democracy had declared that it would not contest for delegates, and because so many State Democrats have evinced so much triendliness lately toward their old Tammany Hall foes.

The Tammany leaders talked the matter over at a meeting of the Executive committee held late yesterday afternoon, and the making of certain arrangements which were to have been completed yesterday relative to the number of nen to be taken by special trains to the Saratoga and Chicago Conventions had to be postponed for ten days. In the mean time the Committee of Arrangements, of which ex-Senator Plunkit is Chairman, will ascertain how many former State Democracy men may want seats on the Saratoga train or berths on the Chicago train. The matter of distributing blanks to be filled in by applicants for place as inspectors of election, poll and ballot clerks was also postponed until next Thursday. It is understood that the trace men who have come into the regular organization will have a fair share of these places.

A resolution was adopted on motion of Mr. Sheehan requesting the Assembly district organizations to hold conventions and elect delegates to the State Convention on or before June 20. The resolution also suggests that the call shall be an invitation to all persons interested in the success of the Democratic party.

Mr. Sheehan requesting the Assembly district organizations and distribution in an asset to an inquiry as to whether it had been determined to send some Grace-Fairchild Democrats to Saratoga and Chicago. sembly district to the Democratic State Con-all persons interested in the success of the Democratic party.

Mr. Sheehan said after the meeting in answer to an inquiry as to whether it had been determined to send some Grace-Fairchild Democrats to Saratoga and Chicago: "That is a matter on which I have no right to speak, it rests entirely with the conventions to determine whom they will select to represent them. I can say, though, that all Democrats in this city will work in harmony for the success of the Democratic party hereafter. The Democrats of this city have come to the conclusion that it is about time to take advantage of the fact that New York is a Democratic City. They know that if there is no division in the party both the State and the city are bound to be governed by Democratic City. They know that if there is no division in the party both the State and the city are bound to be governed by Democratic City. They form have had quite chough of the reform which has resulted from dividing the Democratic vote. The quality does not suit them, and they are going to be faithful to Democratic principles and candidates be reafter."

Mr. Sheehan would not say that Fairchild. Grace, or any of the other former bitter anti-Tammany men will be elected delegates to Chicago, but another Tammany leader said that they undoubtedly will be, and that many of the minor State Democracy leaders will be in the Saratoga delegation. This gentleman added that the attack on the sound money of the country which threatened from the West and South in the party had much to do with bringing about reconclination of the factions. He added that the attack on the sound money of the country which they are conclinatio

"The meanest of these attacks on Mr. Carlisle is the rumor that his wife pays taxes on $625,000 worth of property. Kentucky people have always taken pride in the honesty of John G. Carlisie. They have pointed him out as a man too scrupulousir honest to get rich in political life. The assertion that he has suddenly become wealthy has a motive as apparent as it is despicable. It is well known to all of Mr. Carlisie's friends that he is a poor man. The only property he owns is in the wild lands of the Kentucky mountains and a home in Washington. The latter he bought about eight years ago and has not yet been able to pay for it, although it is not a costly home. EX-GOV. COBERTS WITHDRAWS Only Two Democrats and One Popullst Now

Running for Governor in Texas. GALVESTON, Tex., May 26. Political circles in Texas were astonished to-day by the withdrawal of ex-toy. Roberts from the Gubernato-rial race. The "sound-money" Democrats rial race. The "sound-money" Democrats boiled from the silvarites, and both factions will put out candidates for the Governorship. Ex-tiov. Roberts, a free-silverite advocate, about a month ago came out as an independent candidate on a patform which was satisfactory to the advocates of a good standard, placing three Democratic candidates in the field and assuring the election of a Populist, tiov. Roberts briefly withdraw, giving as his reason that he holyd to see the Democratis unite after the Chicago Convention. His withdrawal leaves the race an enigma.

SALT LAKE'S MURDER MYSTERY. The Rev. Mr. Hermans Was in Chicago on Saturday - Police Looking for Him CHICAGO, May 20. The Rev. Francis Hermans, the alleged Sait Lake murderer, is not inknown in Chicago. He was in this city two weeks ago, but his present whereabouts is un-known. He is described as a fine-looking man, resembling a Scotchman, above the average size, of about 180 pounds weight. The Rev. Dr. Johnson, paster of the Norwegian Methodist Episcopal Church, knew him well.

"I am astonished at the charges against Mr.

"I am astonished at the charges against Mr. Hermans," he said to-night. "It was about two weeks ago that I met him here. During our conversation he said he had just received a telegram from the Presiding Elder in Salt Lake to go back to that city immediately. He said he was bound to Cleveland to meet the Methodist ministers, as he was out collecting money to pay off his church debt."

David Fraunkle, a mining engineer, who lives at Salt Lake, says: "I don't believe the story, I saw Mr. Hermans when he was here two weeks sao and he told me he was going to Cleveland to collect money to pay off the mortgage on his church in Salt Lake. I believe that he went East. He showed me a ticket to Cleveland."

The Wondlawn Park police were notified yesterialy that Hermans was seen in this city on Saturday. Detectives have been detailed to search for him.

If the local police detectives are looking in New York for the Rev. Francis Hermans of Salt Lake, suspected of the murder of Henrietta Clawson and Annie Samuelson, they have not succeeded in locating him. Hermans has been for some time the Secretary of the Norwegian-banish Conference to which he was attached. No one at the Methodist Book Concern here knows him, but the fact that he was the Secretary of his Conference is taken as an indication that he was looked upon as a man of standing and ability in Utah.

The Swedes here and in Brooklyn are very much annoyed over the published reports that Hermans is a Swede. Hakan Johansen, editor of the Swedish paper, Nordsfernan (North Star), said: Star', said:

"I am positive that Hermans is no Swede.
No such name is borne by a Swede. Neither is he a Norwegian. The probabilities are that he is a Dane. Hesides, the Swedish Methodist church in Salt Lake has its own pastor. I know him very well. The Swedes never unite with either Norwegians or Danes in worship.
The Danes and Norwegians often unite."

A DANCE ON A FERRYBOAT. Novel Moonlight Trip Up the Hudson River

Last Night. There was a moonlight sail up the Hudson River on a ferryboat last night for the benefit of St. Katherine's Home in Jersey City. Among the patronesses were a large number of society women of this city and New Jersey. One of the Pennsylvania Railroad's double decked ferryboats was chartered for the sail.

It was decorated with flags, bunting, and flowers, decks and roadways of the boat were used for dancing.

The boat left the Hoboken Ferry slip at $\text{Big}$ o'clock, and stopped at the foot of West Fourteenth street in this city at $\text{Bis}$. After a ride of an hour and a half up the river the boat turned around and made for the slip. She reached Hoboken at 12:15 A. M., and discharged the New York portion of new passencers at the Fourteenth street slip a quarter of an hour later. During the trip refreshments were served.

FREE-SILVER PROGRAMME.

SILVER DEMOCRATS, TELLER MEN, AND POPULISTS TO UNITE

And Put Up Botes for President, Most Likely, at the Conventions to Be Reid to Se, Louis on July 22 Silver Republicans Generally Not Expected to Pollow Teller A number of silver Democrats and silver Republicans have been in New York for the last lay or so discussing the probable immediate future of those interested in the white metal. The most important silver men here have been Senator John P. Jones of Neyada and ex-Gov. Hauser of Montana. The final conferences over a prospective programme were held yesterday at the Fifth Avenue Hotel and the Windsor Hotel. Neither Senator Jones nor ex-Gov. Hauser cared to tell what was in the air; but from those who consulted with them it was as-certained that there is not much of a chance of a bolt on the part of the silver Republicans at St. Louis. But after all that Senator Teller has said and done he can hardly remain in the Republican Convention unless the money plank

a ratio of 10 to 1. It was explained that one of the reasons why other silver Republicans will not bolt if a straddle plank is adopted is that most of the delegates from the far Western States have promises that they shall have the distribution of the Federal patronage if McKinley is nominated. This Federal patronage, together with the promise that a duty shall be put on wool, will, it was believed, be of more entrancing in-terest to the silver Republicans than a freecoinage plank. In support of this it was said that the alleged free-silver delegates to the Republican Convention, outside of Senator Teiler's state, are not bound up heart and soul in free coimage plank. In support of this it was said that the alieged free-silver delegates to the Republican Convention, outside of Senator Teller's State, are not bound up heart and soul in free silver.

Not so, however, with the silver Democrats who are to be sent as delegates to the Chicago Convention. It was learned at conclusion of the convention. It was learned at conclusion of the residual convention. It was learned at conclusion of the residual convention of the residual convention of the residual convention. It was learned at conclusion of free silver. That is one of the residual convention of the said when he declared that the Democratic National Committee will try every way to keep the silver Democrats out of the Convention. It was added that the Democratic National Committee is interested in developing all sorts of contests in the silver districts, and that, as contestants cannot vote on their own cases, the sound-money Democrats will be in a majority but that the "thimblerigging methods of the National Committee" are to be employed for the special purpose of making it appear that the silver Democrats will be in the majority, but that the "thimblerigging methods of the National Committee" are to be employed for the special purpose of making it appear that the silver Democrats would leave the Convention, and, with the Populists, to be held in St. Louis on July 22.

There is very much truth in the story that Senator Teller is being considered as the candidate for President of the bolting silver Democrats, the Teller silver Republicans, and the Populists. Even Weaver, the old-time Populists. Even Weaver, the old-time Populists. In the silver men declared peace of the silver men and the suppose of the heart of the bolting silver men and raises and the Teller silver Republicans, and the voted against the Force bill. There are many Southern Democrats on the ground that he voted

INDIANA FREE SILVERITES.

Conference of Leaders Say They Can INDIANAPOLIS, May 26.-The free-silver Democrats held a conference here to-day which was attended by more than one hundred representative men from twelve of the thirteen Congress districts, the Seventh district being the only one unrepresented. Ex-Congressman Shively made an address in which he declared that the Democrats could carry the State on a free-silver platform and would lose it on any other. His utterances were heartily applauded, and before the meeting adjourned it was de-cided that he should be the free-silver candi-date for the Gubernatorial nomination. Others spoke in the same vein, and it was decided to eiter aggressively upon a campaign to force the free-silver issue in the Convention. the free-silver issue in the Convention.

Reports from the various districts represented were manimous that the great body of the Democrats are for free silver, and, if the party so declares, that their State ticket will receive the support of the Populasts almost to a man. Committees were appointed for each district, and piedsed to make a canvass of the countes before the State Convention meets on June 24. All present at the meeting were for Matthews for President. They declared that its State would send a soild delegation to Chicago for him because he has ailied himself with the free-silver men.

LENOX AVENUE CARS COLLIDE. Both Damaged Two Employees Injured
